Celebrating 40 Years of Inspiration

On Saturday, February 3, 2024, USCTDP staff gathered for an evening of fellowship and celebration.

Reflecting on “40 Years of Inspiration,” Jan Irwin set the tone by highlighting the singular contributions of each teaching professional and staff member that, combined, have fueled the Program’s purpose and passion. The pros chimed in for an evening of storytelling and camaraderie, citing instances of encouragement, perseverance, and vision. Of special significance, the team honored Renee Bodnar, USCTDP’s first teaching professional to retire.

Anniversaries are occasions to reflect on the past and to dream about the future. The entire USCTDP team did both by reading aloud the Values & Behaviors on which the Program was built – and which serve as the foundation for its future.
